Siobhan McKinley is the founder and owner of ORGÁNACHS Farm To Skin which celebrated its one year anniversary in March 2017. Siobhan is leading the way for “Green Beauty” in Connecticut as ORGÁNACHS is the first of its kind beauty boutique offering a luxe collection of organic and natural skin care, makeup, bath & body, hair and lifestyle products.

Siobhan believes that every woman should have the opportunity to discover high-performing, result-driven organic brands that offer only the highest efficacy and authenticity. At ORGÁNACHS the work has been done for you as each brand is vetted for its ingredient list and performance. “We need to care about what we put on our skin as much as we care about what we put in our body,” remarks Siobhan. ORGÁNACHS also offers facial services, makeup application, private events and workshops.
